Office of GEORGE W. ELLIS,
ATTORNEY AND COUNSELLOR AT LAW,
155 BROADWAY,

New York, Dec. 18th 1893

Dear Mr. Brainerd

As you suggested, 50 copies of your book were sent to Mrs. Sages residence last week tuesday direct from the printers, so that all of the Emma Willard Association could read a copy.

Each officer of the Association at Troy has been furnished a copy. Every public library in the City of New York has been furnished with a copy.

Whenever any list of people occurs to you as desirable recipients of copies please let me know & I could have them forwarded

Yours very truly
George W Ellis

My dear Sir:

I am exceedingly sorry that it will be impossible for me to be present at the meeting of the Cong. Club at Middlebury upon Forefathers' Day. If there were any way of returning so as not to make up the next morning I should try to attend. but I cannot afford to allow so serious an interruption of my work.
